

A Platform for Change

Activities at UW RED SQUARE

- Passing through
- Studying at libraries
- Lectures
- Waiting in line in front of food trucks
- Protesting people

Concept: Facilitate the continuation of Red Square as an environment for political protest, while modernizing the space through the inclusion of more greenery and seating opportunities.

Features: Raised and planted platform, showcasing the obelisk at the focal low point of the square, with sloped walkways for access. Green walls on stacks, with planting beds behind them. Planting bed at the obelisk's former location.
